PAROLES

I wake up, and you're all I see
I've got a light and it's blinding
Are you awake?
Are you awake?

Three years, it's no better than before
You'd think I'd learn, oh hell no
Are you awake?
Are you awake?
Are you awake?

I could paint your face
'Cause it still haunts my memory
You and I are shadows dancing
But fire can't burn all night

I could paint your face
'Cause it still haunts my memory
You and I are shadows dancing
But fire can't burn all night

Ooh

I wake up, and you're all I see
I've got a light and it's blinding
Are you awake?
Are you awake?

I could paint your face
'Cause it still haunts my memory
You and I are shadows dancing
But fire can't burn all night

I could paint your face
'Cause it still haunts my memory
You and I are shadows dancing
But fire can't burn all night

Ooh
